

This policy sets out conditions applicable to the use of company cars.

The full content of the policy is available for download to your shopping cart.

Example content:

Motor vehicles may be provided by [insert Company name] for use by its employees in accordance with the requirements of the business and where applicable, the terms and conditions of their employment contract.

Definitions

A 'Tool of Trade' vehicle – provided to an employee due to the requirements of the position that they hold;

'Packaged' vehicles - provided to employees as part of their total remuneration package

'Designated Key Holder' - an employee who has a specific vehicle allocated to them