

This policy sets out conditions applicable to the use of internet, email and computer resources.

The full content of the policy is available for download to your shopping cart.

Example content:

This policy is to be read in conjunction with Electronics Communication Policy and the Electronic Devices Policy. [insert company name] provides information technology (IT) facilities, equipment and software to allow employees to perform their duties on behalf of [insert company name].

I.T. equipment including software and systems required to operate the device, includes but is not limited to servers, computers, laptops, printers, scanners, copiers, telephones, mobile phones, facsimile machines, mass storage devices, network hardware and cables, digital cameras, data projectors, iPods, MP3's BlackBerry mobile phones, iphones and other personal organisers.